On Paschal Time from The Liturgical Year by Dom Gueranger O.S.B.

We give the name of Paschal Time to the period between Easter Sunday and the Saturday following Whit Sunday (Pentecost). It is the most sacred portion of the liturgical year, and the one towards which the whole cycle converges. We shall easily understand how this is, if we reflect upon the greatness of Easter, which is called the feast of feasts, and the solemnity of solemnities, in the same manner, says St Gregory, as the most sacred part of the Temple was called the Holy of holies; and the book of sacred scripture, wherein are described the espousals between Christ and the Church, is called the Canticle of Canticles. It is on this day that that mission of the Word Incarnate attains the object towards which it has hitherto been tending: man is raised up from his fall and regains what he had lost by Adam's sin.

Christmas gave us a Man-god; three days have scarcely passed since we witnessed his infinitely precious Blood shed for our ransom; but now, on the day of Easter, our Jesus is no longer the victim of death: He is a conqueror, who destroys death, the child of sin, and proclaims life, that undying life which he has purchased for us. The humiliation of his swathing-bands, the sufferings of his agony and cross, these are passed; all is now glory – glory for himself, and glory also for us. On the day of Easter, God regains, by the Resurrection of the Man-God, his creation such as he made it at the beginning; the only vestige now left of death is sin, the likeness of which the lamb of God deigned to take upon himself. Neither is it Jesus alone that returns to eternal life; the whole human race also has risen to immortality together with our Jesus. “By a man came death,” says the Apostle, “and by a Man the Resurrection of the dead; and as in Adam all die, so also in Christ all shall be made alive.”

Of all the seasons of the liturgical year Easter-tide is by far the richest in mystery. We might say that Easter is the summit of the Mystery of the sacred Liturgy. The Christian who is happy enough to enter, with his whole mind and heart, into the knowledge and love of the Paschal Mystery, has reached the very centre of the supernatural life...

A warm welcome to all visitors and to those who are attending Mass at our Parish, or the Traditional Mass of the Roman Rite, for the first time.

Alleluia!

*In hoc festo sanctissimo sit laus et iubilatio:
benedicamus Domino!*

In this most holy Feast let there be praise and jubilation: Let us bless the Lord!

Fr Webb would like to wish all of the parishioners of Sacred Heart of Jesus TLM community a very happy and holy Eastertide!
